Instructions for Using this Record Book

This record is designed to be the place for you to keep records on your market animal projects. Keeping a record book is an important part of the project. It will help you set goals for the project year, record your accomplishments and provide a place to keep important records. A record book is not meant to be a chore. Instead, it is a way for you to learn about your project, as well as other valuable skills such as setting goals, collecting and evaluating information, tracking costs and expenses, organization and others.

Read through the book carefully and complete all sections requested. Do not leave any sections blank unless they do not relate to your project animal. It is important that you do your own work, but ask your 4-H leader, Extension Agent, parents or other 4-H volunteers for help when you do not understand something.

1. Read through this book and familiarize yourself with the kinds of records you will need and where information should be recorded. Discuss the book with your parent and/or 4-H leader.
2. Complete essential information when you first start your project, such as the cover page and the project planning page. Share your goals with your 4-H leader.
3. Keep your records up to date. Record information as it occurs. Consider setting aside specific times during the project when you will work on your record book.
4. Write neatly and legibly. Use only one color ink.

Animal Care and Management

Your project requires regular care and management. List the things necessary to take care of your project animal(s).

Include the following:

- Feeding and watering practices
- Grooming (washing, clipping, trimming, foot care, etc.....)
- Health practices and medicines
- General Management (cleaning living area and feed containers, halter breaking, training, etc...)

Daily—Things done every day

Example: fed animal, gave fresh water

Weekly—Things done once a week

Example: cleaned feed and water containers

Monthly—Things done once a month

Example: new bedding

Yearly—Things done one time or occasionally throughout the year

Example: disinfected cages

Animal Inventory Record

Use one chart for all project animals at the beginning of the project year. Add pages if necessary. Birds may be grouped. Home breed animals should be valued at market price - what it can be purchased or sold for.
